Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

Mission Statement

The mission of the Department of State Police is to assist the Charlottesville Police Department and to provide general security and safety of persons and protection of property in and around Emancipation Park (formally Lee Park) and McIntire Park in the City of Charlottesville. Additional groups are expected to be in attendance to protest or show their support for the rally. Our primary objective is to provide support to the Charlottesville Police Department, prevent any acts of violence, and to prevent any group or individual from disrupting the scheduled and permitted rally.

Introduction

On August 12, 2017 Jason Kessler a local Alt-Right activist is scheduled to hold a Unite the Right rally in Emancipation Park (formally Lee Park) in the City of Charlottesville. The permitted rally is scheduled from 1200 to 1700 hours. Kessler and group will be arriving to begin setting up at 1000 hours.

The permit application indicates an attendance of approximately 400 people is expected.

Both Alt-Right/affiliates and groups in opposition have made it known that violence is an option for self-defense. Many

Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

In a civil disturbance it may become necessary to make arrests of numerous individuals over a short period of time. The purpose of this plan is to provide guidance for mass arrests during civil disobedience to ensure protection of life, property, and the civil rights of our citizens. Also, to ensure for the safety of our Troopers, other Law-Enforcement Officers involved. The plans must consider the possibility that arrests will exceed normal capability of jails and transportation of inmates. Planning for the transportation and the lawful processing of offenders arrested is vital to ensuring rights of due process are not violated and liability to the Department is minimized.

1. _____ are responsible for the following:
 - a. The receipt and process of prisoners taken into custody by _____
 - b. Opening the initial _____ report and photography of suspect with arresting Trooper.
 - c. Ensuring that the arresting officer completes and signs the DC 311 Criminal Complaint Form.

Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

- d. Fingerprinting the suspect and advice of rights.
- e. Attempts to obtain a statement from the suspect.
- f. Presenting suspects before a magistrate and presenting information to magistrate for obtaining arrest warrant(s) and committal order(s).

Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

Proper planning and resource acquisition will permit quick and effective process of criminal offenders.

- d. The prisoner will be transported to the booking location and presented to a BCI Mass Arrest Team for further processing.

Use of Force/Rules of Engagement

The Department's Use of Force Policy set forth in General Order OPR 05.01 of the State Police Manual will remain in effect for the duration of this event. The response to unlawful behavior will be in accordance with this policy. The reasonableness of force used to affect a seizure is determined by balancing the nature and quality of the intrusion on the individuals Fourth Amendment interests against the governmental interests at stake. Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386, 396-397 (1989) in determining the governmental interest, the Court will consider three factors:

1. The severity of the crime at issue.
2. Whether the suspect posed an immediate threat to the safety of the Troopers or others.
3. Whether the suspect was actively resisting arrest or attempting to evade arrest by flight.

In all situations, the force used must be objectively reasonable under the totality of the circumstances.

Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

Anyone who sustains an injury or reports an injury during the process of being arrested or while a member of this Department is deploying force, shall be offered medical attention as soon as it is safe and prudent to do so.

All injuries to members of this Department shall be reported to a supervisor assigned to this event as soon as possible, and in all instances prior to departing from the assignment.

Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

Lawful Assembly

Free speech and assembly are protected by the First Amendment and include:

- Speeches
- Marches
- Demonstrations
- Rallies
- Picketing
- Public assemblies
- Protests
- Celebratory events

Isolated Unlawful Behavior

Isolated unlawful activity by individuals or small groups within a crowd should not automatically form the basis for the declaration of an unlawful assembly.

Examples:

- Isolated destruction of property
- Isolated acts of violence

Operations Plan: Unite the Right Rally – August 12, 2017 at Charlottesville

- Isolated rock or bottle throwers
- Individual sit down demonstrators, prevention of free passage.

Unlawful Assembly

Assemblies become unlawful and may be dispersed when they become violent, pose a clear and present danger of violence, or the group is breaking other laws. If crimes are taking place, action may be taken to disperse the group. This may be done prior to warnings if necessary to stop crimes from being committed. Examples:

- Commit unlawful acts
- Vandalism
- Destruction of property
- Commit lawful acts in a threatening and disorderly manner where violence is likely; threats to do bodily harm, weapons present, violent actions.

Riot

A riot can be defined as a group of two or more people that commit crimes against people and property. The group may use force against the public/police in a disturbance of public peace or other acts of violence or threats.

Weapons may be present that can cause serious injury to death i.e., Molotov cocktails, sling shots, bats, pipes, etc. The wearing of masks would suggest a criminal reason to hide identity and is unlawful in Virginia.
